Ci

Confident Individual

INTERFAITH EXPLORERS

What is the best way for you to present your ideas?

- Remember to think through everything you already know when you start to learn or find out about something new.

- Be confident about your ideas and try things out – we often learn more when we don't get things right the first time!